Dedication

5 January 2000

This book is lovingly dedicated to my dear mother who, even in her old age, never failed to attend all the prayer meetings in the church and at the Prayer House. Although she was 86 years old, she still attended the overnight prayer vigils on Fridays and Saturdays.

I really thank the Lord for giving my mom the opportunity of spending her last days in His presence, always in prayer. She would spend all of Saturday evening till Sunday morning in church. After a few hours of rest, she would be back there again for services throughout the day and into the night.

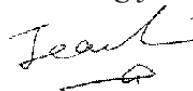

Although she suddenly went to be with the Lord even as we were working on this book, it is so assuring to know that my mother really prepared herself in God's presence to finally be with Him forever.

*Mom, we love you and will miss you dearly.
Thank you for always being there when we needed you.*

We thank God and rejoice with you that you are now enjoying God's presence eternally.

Till we meet again,

Lovingly

Mom, may your life be an example of a praying grandmother to many others.

Preface

At long last, after much prayer, we have published a book. It is called “When You Pray” and it is long overdue. Whenever I took meetings, I would be posed the same questions. “Why don’t you write a book on prayer?” “Will you please tell us your testimony?” “How can we get a copy?”

This time around I can say, “Yes, there is a book now. Here it is.”

I thank God our first book is now in your hand. It is written solely to glorify our great and mighty God.

He moved powerfully in and through an early church that was truly a praying church. Whenever they prayed, something significant happened. Their prayers were so powerful that they brought down the divine intervention of God and angelic visitation. Powerful healing and deliverance took place.

They experienced so much of the reality of God that they were able to let go of the things of the world. Their lives were transformed, so much so that they were willing to give up their possessions to lay hold of God.

You too can experience God if you pray the way they prayed. When you touch God, you too will be willing to let go. The same Almighty God is just waiting to manifest an even greater measure of His power and glory if His people today would pray as the early church did in the days of Acts.

In my own life, prayer has led me from the natural into the supernatural. Our gracious Lord drew me out of wretchedness and misery, delivered me from severe bondage and demonic forces and anointed me to serve Him. I cannot imagine where I would be today if it were not for the mercy and grace of God.

Prayer is putting your faith in God and those who do so will never fail because God will never fail. Many are those who, when they prayed, believed; and they saw the mighty hand of God move on their behalf. Some of the testimonies of the people who have been powerfully healed just by praying and believing are presented here.

Words cannot describe my gratitude to my Saviour, God and Master. With Him, nothing is impossible; and He answers prayer. When you pray, you will experience God and know Him more deeply.

Dear Lord Jesus, I pray that You will touch everyone who reads this book. May You reveal Yourself more and more to my dear readers and draw them closer to You each day, into a life of intimacy with You by Your grace.

May this book bring new excitement into their prayer life, and may You pour forth Your spirit of prayer upon each one so that all will know that You are truly worthy of all our worship, our love, our service and even our life.

To You be the glory. Amen.

Acknowledgements

I want to specially thank Kwan Kwai Heng, my personal assistant, for helping to rush this book out. Despite the time and other pressures, she was willing to commit herself to finishing the book for the 7th National Prayer & Intercessors' Retreat, "The Transforming Glory".

Special thanks also to David Kwan who so freely released his wife to serve in this manner.

Thanks also to Thong May Heng and Raymond Thong who gave much of their time and sleep to put the book together.

And not forgetting my sister, Monica Neo, who kindly helped to proofread the book together with my son-in-law Goh Sing Hong, my nephew Tan Bok Choon and my daughter Angelina Hoe. To all of you, I express my deep appreciation.

Most of all, thanks be to God Who above all made this book possible.
